National Institute of Plant Health Management (NIPHM) is an Autonomous Organization under DA & FW, Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, Govt. of India, aims to develop a committed and competent cadre of professionals to promote sustainable plant health management in India. NIPHM has a Gazette-notified quality control laboratory and has been given the functions of a Central Insecticide Laboratory in respect of biopesticides testing under section 16 of the Insecticide Act, 1968. The use of biopesticides for successful biological control of pests mainly depends on their quality and timely application. Hence there is a need for capacity building in quality assessment and quality management of biopesticides. In view of the said scenario, NIPHM has planned to organize a training program on 'Quality Control of Microbial Biopesticides' for biopesticides industry personnel.
